This October, IKEA is adding even more products to the comfortably sophisticated Continental Dark style, from bed linens and metre fabrics to furniture and dinnerware.

The traditional style is characterised by textiles with rich, detailed prints in deep blues, tartan checks and smoky browns set to complement wood or iron furniture in black-brown or grey. The expression draws inspiration from 19th century colonial New England, Asian inspired ceramics and even elements from 1920 bohemian Paris.

Adding to the collection this autumn are new textiles, like the floral BLÅVINGE metre fabric and cushion cover and SÖTBLOMSTER quilt cover, which mix beautifully with current favourites like YSTAD sofa, INGATORP drop leaf table or ÄLMSTA rattan chair.

Supporting the style in the living room is the new blue tartan checked RUTNA cover for the EKTORP sofa, a classic favourite. EKTORP sofa with RUTNA cover pairs beautifully with the botanical features of the new FJÄLLJUNG cushion covers or the large paisley pattern of the VILSUND RUG in blue.

With the autumn season here, it's the perfect time to reintroduce this relaxed and refined style.
